

Ways to Volunteer & Donate in SEPTEMBER 2019

Pantry Current Needs: health care products – razors, feminine hygiene products, deodorant, sunscreen, etc.; cleaning products – dish soap, etc.

SPECIAL REQUEST: Need donations of (or a discount supplier for) new appliances for the converted rectory: Fridge, Dishwasher, Clothes Washer and Dryer

Financial donations to Gleaners can be specified for CARES food pantry to buy perishables:
meat, milk & vegetables

The Baldwin Center needs the following:

- Feminine hygiene products
- Laundry detergent (pods or liquid; not powder)
- Deodorant / razors / shaving cream
- Men's clothing
- Back-to-school school uniform-style clothes (non-logo polo shirts, khakis)

Our core values include compassion, respect, integrity, and the preservation of human dignity through human services.

138 Youth, 13 First Presbyterian Farmington Volunteers, 11 Faith Communities

The second year of Youth United was a great success, thanks in large part to the involvement of 13 volunteers from First Presbyterian Church of Farmington! Special thanks to Leslie Black, Lois Caito, Laura Hedgecock, Matt Hedgecock, Eddie Jusino, Rob Kirsten, Sally Kirsten, Karen Linnell, Cathy Neal, Nancy Prieskorn, Ev Randlett, Sandi Randlett, and Gordon Seilor. We joined with 138 (!) youth plus adult volunteers from TEN other faith communities to serve the community at CARES. Check out Youth United's Facebook page.

Spread the news!

“Lighthouse of Oakland County” & “South Oakland Shelter (SOS)” have merged into ONE organization called.....Lighthouse!

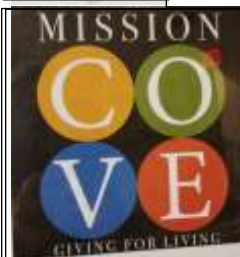

This means in January 2020 we will be hosting Lighthouse guests.
